A BOOK FOR ALL NEW ZEALANDERS WHO FEEL CONNECTED TO THE SEA

This beautiful book, photographed by Jane Ussher, surveys the New Zealand Maritime Museum's collection and explores New Zealand maritime history through 100 fascinating and wide-ranging objects. From ship-building tools and Peter Blake's first trophy, to menu cards from the glory days of ocean liners and exquisite model ships, it's the perfect book for all who love the sea, boats and ships, and all else that sails on the water.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Frances Walsh is an Auckland writer and researcher. She has been on the staff of Metro magazine and in 2011 published her first book, Inside Story: A History of the New Zealand Housewife (Random House New Zealand).
