ESSENTIAL GRAMMATICAL ADVICE FOR USERS OF TE REO MĀORI

This indispensable book shares the teaching strategies of one of the most experienced teachers of te reo Māori in Aotearoa. Its explanations and structures, set out in both te reo Māori and English, reflect a Māori perspective that will improve understanding and accuracy in the use of te reo Māori.

As Hone Waengarangi Morris guides users through the correct uses of verbs and particles via useful examples and activities, they will become more accurate, more skilful and more confident in their grasp of the best approach to grammar in the te reo Māori space.

'A new book to reflect the Māori way of thinking' — George Heagney, Manawatu Standard

'Provides learners with a framework grounded in a Māori worldview' — Massey News
